Each course is delivered via either Microsoft Teams or Zoom, by friendly trainers who are passionate about their specialist areas of Scouting and have many years' experience to share and help you develop.

Growing the section: To deliver this as an online session effectively we need to follow it up with a development planning call with the section's leadership team. If you have a few leaders from the same section who need this module email trainingteam@gwentscouts.org.uk with suggested dates you're all available and if we're able to confirm availability we'll schedule and open it up to others too.
